1 Samuel Abrams	Sarah Lawrence College	Professor of Politics	9/27/2024	9/27/2024	Professor Abrams discovered during his course interview week that several student groups within a "Divestment Coalition" were pressuring students to boycott his classes due to Abrams' support of Israel's right to exist. His classes, which normally have waitlists, were underfilled because of the efforts of the pro-divestment, pro-Palestinian groups.	Racism, Misogyny, pro-Israel views	Students boycott classes, administration laconic in response	https://www.mindingthecampus.org/2024/08/27/the-dangerous-evolution-of-cancel-culture/
2 Nathan Cofnas	University of Cambridge/Emmanuel College	Research Fellow in Faculty of Philosophy at Cambridge, College Research Associate at Emmanuel College	2/16/2024	4/12/2024	Cambridge students created a petition to remove Cofnas after he wrote a post in February titled "A Guide for the Hereditarian Revolution." In the article, Cofnas described his views on accepting "race realism," it was not accepted well by students. Cambridge University and Emmanuel College at first did not pursue investigations into Cofnas, upholding his "academic freedom." But in April, 2024, Cofnas received a termination letter from Emmanuel College, concluding that his blog post "amounted to, or could reasonably be construed as amounting to, a rejection of diversity, Equality, and inclusion (DEI and EDI) policies."	Racism, anti-DEI	Position terminated	https://www.project-syndicate.org/commentary/cambridge-nathan-cofnas-free-speech-case-by-peter-singer-2024-04
3 Lois Banner	University of Southern California	Professor Emerita of History	6/2023	7/5/2023	In a talk at the Berkshire Conference of Women Historians, Professor Banner said that she would have had an easier career if she were black. She allegedly made other comments perceived to be "homophobic" and "anti-Muslim."	Racism, homophobia, Islamophobia	Condemned on Twitter, condemned in official statement by the conference	https://www.insidehighered.com/news/faculty-issues/2023/07/05/racial-comment-inflames-berkshire-conference-women-historians?utm_source=inside+HigherEd&utm_campaign=B2688806b-DNU_2021_COPY_02&utm_medium=email&utm_term=0_1fcb04421-63688806b
